Call for Participants
Knowledge and Innovation, Cooperative Strategy, and Entrepreneurship
Paper Development and Future Research Directions Workshop
Saturday, September 17, 2016, 9 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
Submission Deadline: August 12, 2016

The workshop is open to all, but preference will be given to junior faculty. The workshop is focused on probing current and emerging questions relating to organizations’ search for novel knowledge and the impact on innovation, entrepreneurship as well as cooperative strategies for accessing and levering such knowledge. Broadly defined, topics of interest include: mechanisms and networks of inter-organizational knowledge development, cooperative strategies in technology and R&D platforms, development and integration of external sources of innovation through corporate venturing, searching for and transforming knowledge during the evaluation and exploitation of entrepreneurial opportunities, and related topics. This session is intended to: 1) provide collective insights from a panel of senior scholars operating at the forefront of this field; and 2) to include feedback on current papers in progress that are focused on this topic.

Senior Faculty Participants Include:

- Sharon Alvarez, University of Denver
- Kim Eddleston, Northeastern University
- Tim Folta, University of Connecticut
